

Jayhawk Media Workshop

One-Time Commuter Release Form 2022

This form explains the policies and procedures for students hoping to attend the Jayhawk Media Workshop who also need to leave the camp for another commitment.

Who? Any student enrolled in JMW may leave the workshop with the expressed permission of his/her parent or guardian.

What? Students may leave the workshop for another commitment whether for a few hours or overnight. However, students will not be provided with a full or partial refund in such circumstances.

What will students miss? Workshop students may miss classroom instruction or activities planned for the entire camp. JMW also hosts social activities in the evenings that students would miss if they leave the workshop during those times.

How? One-time commuting students must check in and out with the Student Activities Director at the residence hall. The Student Activities Director will confirm the identity of the person picking up the student from the workshop.

When? Please note the pick-up and drop-off times on the form below

Release

I hereby authorize the University of Kansas and the Jayhawk Media Workshop (JMW) to allow my child to participate in the 2022 JMW camp as a one-time commuting student and agree to abide by the policies and procedures listed above. I understand that I must provide transportation to and from JMW at the time of the absence from JMW. I also understand that timely drop-off and pick-up are vital to student safety and the activities of JMW. I acknowledge that if the policies listed above are not followed, my child will be subject to dismissal from the 2022 JMW camp without refund. I hereby release the University of Kansas, JMW, and their employees from liability for, and waive on behalf of myself, my child, and my heirs and successors, any or all loss, damage, injuries, claims, demands, actions or causes of actions, and any other liability of any kind, known or unknown, of or to me or any other person, directly or indirectly arising out of or in connection with my child's participation in, attendance at, or travel to and from the 2022 JMW camp.
